

My Account Information

Dear Roehr's Machinery Customers,

It is very exciting to announce that Roehr's Machinery has launched "My Account" to the company's website (www.roehrs.com). It gives the ability for our valued customers to view their account at anytime. ALSO, customers will have the ability to receive every invoices and or statements electronically to their personal email. It is a great opportunity for our appreciated customers to always have knowledge about their account. All statements and invoice are also printable online.

"My Account" Instructions

Once this form is sent back in with information needed, one will be able to look at the account online www.roehrs.com (please allow 3-5 days for setup). Once you log on to www.roehrs.com click on the "My Account" tab, from there enter your email address and the password (the one sent back to us on this form).

Electronic Invoice and Statements

This great opportunity will allow you to receive an electronic .pdf invoice the following business day from charging on account. Also statements will be emailed the same day monthly statements are sent out.
